

Doteasy KB

How do I set SMTP authentication in Outlook?

If your ISP does not provide SMTP server service for your use, you may use the Doteasy mail server for SMTP. However, you will need to specify your Outlook to authenticate in order for the SMTP server to accept your outgoing email.

You will find the My outgoing server (SMTP) requires authentication checkbox by clicking on the "More Settings " button on the Internet E-Mail Settings page.

<https://kb.doteasy.com/questions/233/>